

¡Lotería!

What makes the American Latine identity and experience unique?

With so many cultures involved, there are many ways to be Latine or Hispanic!

Play this lotería to learn more about the languages, food, music, historical figures, places, stories, and cultural traditions of Americans of Spanish, Mexican, Caribbean, Central American, and South American descent.

Build resilience by dancing, listening and singing along with the music of the queen of salsa, Celia Cruz ¡Azúcar!	Find an inspirational quote about serving others by civil rights leaders Dolores Huerta or Cesar Chavez ¡Sí se Puede!	Read Drum Dream Girl by Margarita Engle and illustrated by Rafael López, about a Cuban girl who breaks with drumming tradition. ¡La rebelde!	Explore the way of the mask by creating your own luchador mask. Don't forget to share your luchador name! ¡El luchador!	Watch Encanto or another movie, song, or play written by Puerto-Rican American artist Lin-Manuel Miranda ¡El artista!
Celebrate our farmworkers who grow and pick the food we eat with an appreciation coloring sheet. ¡El trabajador!	Read a book by award-winning Mexican- American author and illustrator Yuyi Morales. ¡La escritora!	Make your own papel picado, a traditional decoration at parties and celebrations including Día de los Muertos. ¡Las artesanías!	Explore different Latin soundscapes and musical genres like bossa nova, samba, and Latin pop ¡La música!	Pay tribute to the legacy of Mesoamerican cuisine by making your own salsa. ¡El molcajete!
Celebrate independence day with Costa Rica, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua on September 15th! ¡La libertad!	Visit a local paleta shop and try a fruit popsicle. Try a traditional flavor like maracuyá, guayaba or dulce de leche. ¡La paleta!	Free Space 	Learn a Latin dance such as Flamenco, Bachata, Salsa, Merengue, Samba, Bolero, or Tango. ¡Olé!	Learn Spanish and sing along to your favorite kids songs played with a Reggaeton beat by Good Kids Musik. ¡Dale!
There is a joke to be found in almost everything for Latinx/e folks. Find a joke that makes you laugh and share it! ¡El chiste!	Differences make us unique! Read Justice Sonia Sotomayor's book Just Ask! Be Different, Be Brave, Be You. ¡La jueza!	Explore a world map and plan a fictional trip to one of Latin America's 30+ countries. ¡El viaje!	Read a book by award-winning author and illustrator Duncan Tonatiuh. ¡El cuento!	Check out the library's database Enciclopedia Estudiantil Hallazgos or World Book Spanish ¡La biblioteca!
Latinx/e culture is known for its love of family (inherited or chosen). Color in a corazón and give it to someone special. ¡El corazón!	Read a biography about a famous Latine-American such as baseballer Minnie Miñoso or astronaut Ellen Ochoa ¡Los primeros!	Interview a Spanish speaker in your community with some fun questions or watch a movie or show in Spanish ¡En español!	Fútbol (soccer) is the most popular sport played in the Americas. Practice your own "gooooal" call for your next game! ¡El fútbol!	Listen to "Qam hina" by Quechua-speaking artist Renata Flores. This song pays tribute to girls who face educational barriers ¡El quechua!

¡LOTERÍA!

Find the activities needed for this BINGO, as well as other resources on Latin culture at:

<https://www.bexleylibrary.org/hispanic-heritage>

Complete five activities in a row to enter into our raffle prize drawing! Turn the completed lotería in to a children's librarian to get your raffle entry.

1 raffle entry per BINGO for a maximum of 12 raffles.

*Winners will be notified October 19, 2022.

Prizes

- OSU Center for Latin American Studies Reusable Water Bottle
 - Diamonds Ice Cream $10 Gift Certificate
 - Dulce Vida Paletería & Heladería $10 Gift Certificate
 - Set of Traditional Mexican Dolls
 - Lotería Spanish Language Game Set
 - Center for Latin American Studies pencils
 - Picture Book Dreamers by Yuyi Morales
- Picture Book They Call Me Güero: A Border Kid's Poems by David Bowles

Created by Pamela Espinosa de los Monteros, MLIS
Latin American Studies, Iberian, and Latino/a Studies Librarian, The Ohio State University
With support from the Youth Services Department at the Bexley Public Library

Edited by Talía Guzmán-González, PhD, MLIS
Research and Instructional Librarian, San Francisco State University

Thank you to OSU Center for Latin American Studies and Kamila Pietrzak for sponsoring our prizes.

